Dear Parent/Carer,

Today was the deadline for expressions of interest for the vacant parent governor position. As we go to press, we have not received any applications from interested parents. Obviously, I am a little disappointed by the lack of responses to our call for parents to support the school. I am extending the deadline until Friday 28th May at 3pm. I urge any parent who has an interest in having their voice heard and who has ideas about how we can improve the school to get in touch with me next week so we can discuss the parent governor role in more detail. PARENTS, CAMBRIDGE SCHOOL NEEDS YOU!!!!

I understand that many of you have very busy lives and that juggling the demands of work and family can be stressful, but there are other ways to support the school as well as being a parent governor. I met with four parents on Tuesday 18th May to talk about how we can improve communication and parental engagement. We are holding an event for parents at 2pm on Wednesday 16th June. It will be an opportunity for parents to mingle and chat over teas, coffees and cakes and to meet key members of staff with a view to relaunching the Cambridge Parent Community or CPC! Look out for the invitation letter from next week.

Yours sincerely,

Alan Campbell
Headteacher
